

CANSI Instructor Course Reimbursement Policy

CANSI instructor participants will pay the CANSI course expenses themselves, up front. The Cariboo Ski Touring Club (CSTC) will reimburse the instructors half of the coaching costs after the instructors have taught a block of lessons. The remaining half of the CANSI coaching course expenses will be reimbursed the following year, after instructors have taught a second block of lessons. The block of lessons can be for instructing adults, Jackrabbit or Biathlon.

Fees for CANSI-certified instructors actively teaching for the CSTC will be reimbursed on an annual basis.

2019 Additional Motion:

Peter motioned that CANSI Instructors actively teaching for the Club will have their CANSI certification fees reimbursed annually.

Greg Strebel seconded the motion. Motion carried.

2010 Original Motion:

Ron moves that CANSI instructor participants pay for the CANSI course themselves up front. The instructors will be reimbursed (1/2 the cost) after teaching a block of lessons. And the next year after teaching another block of lessons, the instructor will be reimbursed the remaining, 1/2 of the cost, of the CANSI course fees. The block of lessons can be for instructing adults, Jackrabbit or Biathlon.

Peter seconded the motion. Motion carried.
